I've found that each of the titles that I've bought in this MLA series provides essential critical material and helpful suggestions for teaching the title work. I will order more this summer in preparation for new courses next fall.

Now at seventy-three volumes, this popular MLA series (ISSN 1059-1133) addresses a broad range of literary texts. Each volume surveys teaching aids and critical material and brings together essays that apply a variety of perspectives to teaching the text. Upper-level undergraduate and graduate students, student teachers, education specialists, and teachers in all humanities disciplines will find these volumes particularly helpful.
