Inc. BarCharts : Arabic Grammar (Quickstudy: Academic) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Arabic Grammar (Quickstudy: Academic):

6 of 6 people found the following review helpful. it is good for a beginner By XYZ XYZI don't know why but I was expecting something more detailed and longer. It is exactly the same with the preview. So if you check the preview out, you are done. You know what you are going to get. Probably that's why I thought it will be longer because the preview was already there. Apart from this, it is good for a beginner. But I am really not sure if it is necessary. The letters on it are too small if you want to put it on a wall or something. You can carry it with you to practice but it is really does not cover that much. So I am just confused about its function. Anyway, it still might be useful for others since it is a good, simple source which brings some very very basic issues together. Especially having different tenses in the same material is useful to me. 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Should be titled "Arabic Trivia" By JoshMost Quick Study grammar cards are excellent and systematically present information such as noun cases and verb tenses and conjugations. This card does not. Instead there are columns of trivia and arcane instructions, with a single example of each tense (if you're lucky). No explanation as to whether the conjugations are regular or irregular or if there even are irregular conjugations. No grid for easily comparing, say, first person singular conjugations across tenses. Practically useless. 15 of 16 people found the following review helpful. More than I Expected! By Customer I was expecting just a page (front and back) of very basic grammar rules. But it is actually a brochure which gives me three front and back pages. I love it! All of the grammar rules I've studied are in there with exactly the information I need to remember. There is also a bunch of other things that I haven't studied yet as I am only in intermediate Arabic. But I do plan on studying beyond advanced to the business level and I know this will be my handy dandy companion through it all.
