Valerie Ann Worwood : Aromatherapy for the Beauty Therapist (Hairdressing Beauty Industry Authority) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Aromatherapy for the Beauty Therapist (Hairdressing Beauty Industry Authority):

5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. Great book for skin care professionals!By feliciaI am currently studying for clinical aromatherapy which leads to becoming a Registered Aromatherapist in the US. I am also a licensed esthetician. This book specializes in the application for skin care. This book is an invaluable resource for Estes wanting to incorporate aromatherapy safely and effectively into their practice. You do not have to be a practicing aromatherapist in order to use the oils but you do need to have some education. The oils are very powerful tools , but there are contraindications for certain conditions. The book also covers carrier oils, facial massage and techniques etc. I have other books by the author and she lives up to her reputation with this book. Yes it is expensive, but it is a text book. The book is worth it. I would buy this again, and am so glad I finally got it. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. I recommend! Covering material which is suitable for students studying for formal qualifications in this area, Aromatherapy for the Beauty Therapist is particularly relevant for Level 3 students studying NVQs and equivalent courses. Listing the skin care properties of essential oils and the beautifying effects associated with them, as well as showing how they can be used in practice, this book is full of practical advice and information on how to maximise the use of essential oils within the salon or clinic. Highly illustrated with photographs and drawings, the book also includes step-by-steps of professional facial treatments.
