

(Download) Becoming a Helper (with InfoTrac)

Becoming a Helper (with InfoTrac)

Marianne Schneider Corey, Gerald Corey
DOC | *audiobook | ebooks | Download PDF | ePub

DOWNLOAD

READ ONLINE

#992109 in Books 2002-02-22Original language:EnglishPDF # 1 .65 x 6.46 x 9.24l, #File Name: 0534356141432 pages | File size: 25.Mb

Marianne Schneider Corey, Gerald Corey : Becoming a Helper (with InfoTrac) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Becoming a Helper (with InfoTrac):

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Kathy PhippsAs described0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Very informativeBy Stan C.This book had all of the information I needed was very helpful in understanding how to become a helper in the Psychology field. This is an introduction level book, but could certainly be used by licensed professionals to serve as a reminder of their place in the helping industry.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. This book is amazing.By sally belcherThis book was a requirement for my Human Resources course in college. I will keep this book as it has information I will be able to use for a very long time. I would recommend it to anyone that plans on entering the Helping field.

Ideal for anyone embarking on or considering a career in human services, counseling, psychology, social work, or any of the other helping professions, this book provides an overview of the stages of the helping process, and the skills and knowledge required to be a successful helping professional. Drawing on their years of experience, the Coreys focus on the struggles, anxieties, and uncertainties involved in becoming an effective helper, and challenge the reader to take a candid look at the demands and strains they'll face in the helping professions and their motives for choosing a helping career.

"I would describe it as a very helpful, practical guide to the helping professions for counselors in training at the beginning and middle stages of their training process. Its major strength is that it is highly readable and clear." "This book contains a wealth of practical and theoretical information and belongs on the shelf of every new human service worker's library." "This is an excellent introductory text to the helping professions. It provides detailed information on the many theoretical and practical topics and issues confronting the helping professional." About the Author Marianne Schneider Corey is a licensed marriage and family therapist in California and is a National Certified Counselor. She received her master's degree in marriage, family, and child counseling from Chapman College. She is a Fellow of the Association for Specialists in Group Work and was the recipient of this organization's Eminent Career Award in 2001. She received the Lifetime Achievement Award from the American Mental Health Counselors Association in 2011. She also holds memberships in the American Counseling Association, the Association for Specialists in Group Work, the Association for Counselor Education and Supervision, the Association for Multicultural Counseling and Development, and the American Mental Health Counselors Association. She is the co-author of several counseling textbooks, and has made educational DVD programs on various aspects of counseling practice. Marianne has been involved in leading groups for different populations, providing training and supervision workshops in group process, facilitating self-exploration groups for graduate students in counseling, and co-facilitating training groups for group counselors and weeklong residential workshops in personal growth. With her husband, Jerry Corey, she has given many presentations at professional conferences and has conducted training workshops, continuing education seminars, and personal growth groups in the United States, Germany, Ireland, Belgium, Mexico, Hong Kong, China, and Korea. Gerald Corey is Professor Emeritus of Human Services at California State University at Fullerton; a Diplomate in Counseling Psychology, American Board of Professional Psychology; a licensed psychologist; a National Certified Counselor; a Fellow of the American Psychological Association (Counseling Psychology); a Fellow of the American Counseling Association; and a Fellow of the Association for Specialists in Group Work. Dr. Corey taught undergraduate and graduate courses in group counseling, as well as courses in experiential groups, the theory and practice of counseling, and ethics in counseling. He is the author or co-author of 15 counseling textbooks currently in print and numerous journal articles. Along with his wife, Marianne Schneider Corey, Dr. Corey has conducted group counseling training workshops for mental health professionals at many universities in the United States, Canada, Mexico, China, Hong Kong, Korea, Germany, Belgium, Scotland, England, and Ireland. The two received the Association for Specialists in Group Work's Eminent Career Award in 2001. Dr. Corey earned his doctorate in counseling from the University of Southern California.