Following the unprecedented transformation of the criminal systems of Latin America and Spain, Merl Bilingual Criminal Law Dictionary lists the most important terms and expressions related to criminal law and procedure and their equivalents in English and Spanish as they appear in legal sources and are used in the courts today. This new book, following the format introduced by Merl Bilingual Law Dictionary, contains a wealth of contextual and related background information including definitions, synonyms, antonyms, abbreviations, specialized and background comments, comparison of terms, cross-references, specialized glossaries and lists and, in addition, hundreds of examples and their corresponding translations. Designed for anyone in need of criminal legal terminology, Merl Bilingual Criminal Law Dictionary is particularly useful to translators, interpreters, lawyers, educators, government officials and those professionals dealing with bilingual legal terms and expressions.
