LOTS of FUN and tons of facts you'll LEARN!By DottieNJWow, even more impressed with the details now that I have the book in front of me! I can't wait until the poster is assembled and we hang it up on the wall... all the little details and "did-you-know" type facts make this map extremely interesting and a fun way to learn things about the United States of America! Perfect for any age - and as a mother and grandmother, even at my age of 46, I learned a few things too!

So it's definitely for children, young adults, parents and even grandparents! LOL. The poster also provides hours of FUN coloring it... there is one MAJOR suggestion I have for you - when coloring the map, use colored pencils... it's the best way to go! Using any type of markers will make the colors bleed through to the pages behind it... and using crayons are good, but if you make a mistake or color out of the lines, then what do you do? I strongly recommend colored pencils because any mistakes made can be erased and re-colored! If you're debating on buying this, DON'T! But this, you WON'T be disappointed - you'll be even more impressed when you see it in person, just like I was! Would make a terrific gift for someone too! Enjoy! ;-)

By Proud MamaLove love love this! We homeschool and this has given us a huge area to study (social studies) color (art!) And memorize capitals and state lines! Brilliant and it's huge! Definite win in our house!

Prepare to form a more perfect union when you color these pictures of all 50 states and assemble them into an enormous map. Twenty-four individual pages include capitals, fun facts, and whimsical images of regional landmarks. Each page is unbacked and perforated for easy removal. The complete map, which measures 44 x 47 inches, is shown on the inside back cover.
