Tracy Terrell, Betsy Kerr, Mary Rogers, Franoise Santore : Cahier d'exercices to accompany Deux Mondes: Communicative Approach before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Cahier d'exercices to accompany Deux Mondes: Communicative Approach:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. and it's useful. By KayleighBooks for students are over priced, I never purchase, but HAD to purchase this for class. Obviously overpriced, but it is what it says it is, and it's useful. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Eh. By Keenan Reeser I mean it does what it's supposed to do I guess. I was not a huge fan of the class I had to purchase this book for, so take that into account. Kind of explains most stuff when you buy the textbook that goes along with it. It's pretty boring though and you need internet access to finish any of the work. PRO TIP: the answers are in the back! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Excellent workbookBy B. CurtisIt can be used on its own without the accompanying text.

Note:This ISBN is a workbook.This combined workbook/laboratory manual contains both acquisition activities and practice activities for use outside the classroom. It also contains the activities for the film, Le Chemin du retour. The Answer Key at the end of the print workboo/lab manual (Cahier) allows students to correct many of the activities themselves. The workbook/lab manual (Cahier) activities and the related audio recordings are also accessible in Connect French. In the online version, many of the activities are auto-graded, giving students instant feedback. In addition, each chapter features two audio/video chat activities and the new Les Francophones sur le vif video series (filmed specifically for Deux mondes) and the related activities.

About the AuthorBetsy J. Kerr is an Associate Professor of French at the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis. She received her Ph.D. in French linguistics from Indiana University and has published in the areas of French syntax and pragmatics, specializing in the analysis of spoken French discourse.
